

BOOK WEEK AT ST.BERNADETTE'S

Monday 13th March – Friday 17th March 2017

Here at St. Bernadette's, we foster a lifelong love of reading in our children. During the fourth week, after half term, there will be lots of activities to encourage children and adults alike to read for pleasure, so we thought we would give you prior notice of what is going to be happening in school.

- ✚ A daily book swap stall - children can bring in their own (good quality) books and permanently exchange them at a stall run by Year 6 children. Please send in any books by Friday 10th March.
- ✚ A Book at Bedtime - in school, on Tuesday 14th March. Reception/KS1 children can return to school, with their parents, at 6pm, with teddies and in their PJs, for a milky drink and bedtime stories. Parents are welcome to stay in the hall, with refreshments, whilst the children go into their own class until finish at 6.30pm (letter to follow).
- ✚ An Author visit - Dan Worsley is coming into school on Wednesday 15th March to talk to the children (Years 1 - 6). There will be an opportunity for KS2 children to ask questions and purchase a signed copy of his book (letter to follow).
- ✚ Scholastics Book Fair - 15th - 17th March (at the end of the school day).
- ✚ Design a book themed National Book Token competition.
- ✚ Character Day - on Friday 17th March, children can dress as a character from their favourite story book (KS2 children should be ready to answer questions about that character in front of some judges).

We hope Book Week will be an exciting week of creativity for our children! We will send out a further letter to explain some of the activities in more detail.

Yours sincerely
